Thanksgiving Service at Baptist Church—Sale of Red Cross Seals For Nurse Association.

Following was the order of the union Thanksgiving service at the Baptist church Wednesday evening: instrumental prelude, "The Pilgrim's Chorus," from Tanhauser, Wagner; Mrs. Charles Larkin, organist; Charles Ryan and Paul Constant violins; reading, President's Proclamation; doxology; invocation; Anthem, "Praise My Soul, The King of Heaven," Constant; Psalm Response, Psalm 107; Gloria; scripture reading; cornet solo, "The Pilgrim's Fathers," Wade, John W. Aley; prayer, hymn, "The Harvest Home," sermon, Rev. H. Schuyler Foster of Norank; hymn, "America," benediction; postlude.

Sale of Seals.

Good work is being done by Mrs. Frank A. Conter in behalf of the Visiting Nurse association. Through her efforts the Red Cross stamps have been placed on sale throughout town and a large part of the sales from these stamps will be available for the Nurse association.

Some large catches of codfish are being made among the lucky ones being Captains Ed, Clark, Elsie, Charles, Benjamin C. Chesbro. The founders that have been quite plenty until recently, have come to deeper water and will now be scarce.

Henry Sylvia, recently employed by the Adams Express in Providence was struck by a trolley in that city Monday afternoon and lies in the hospital in a serious condition.

Those Chiefly Interested.

There still are people who are much interested in the future of the Bull Moose, principally taxidermists.—Kansas City Journal.

HAD HYSTERICS AND FAINTING SPELLS

Asbury Park Woman Had Complete Nervous Breakdown—Restored to Health by Vinol.

Asbury Park, N.J.—"I was in such a nervous, weak, run-down condition that I could not sleep nights, every little thing disturbed me, my appetite was very poor, and I was losing flesh. I was so nervous at times that I used to faint and have hysterics. I do my housework for a family of four, and they became alarmed at my condition. I tried beef, iron and wine and cod liver oil emulsions without benefit. One day our druggist suggested that I try Vinol and told me how it had helped others. I did so, and it has simply done wonders for me, as I am a well woman and entirely cured of my nervousness."—Mrs. KATHERINE E. KLEIN, Asbury Park, N.J.

Such reliable testimony should convince others of the value of Vinol, therefore if you are worn out, weak and nervous and want new strength and more vitality, we ask you to take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic. If it fails to benefit you we give back your money.

Vinol is a constitutional remedy for all weak, nervous and run-down conditions of men, women and children.

HOLIDAY QUIET IN WESTERLY

Union Service in Broad Street Church—Public Hearing on License Applications Tonight—Stanton Clark, 94, Critically Ill.

Attorney Albert R. Crafts, with residence in Westerly and office in Cranston, has brought suit in Providence in behalf of Patrick Moan against Frederick Pierce, a contractor, in a suit for $15,000 damages for injuries received. Moan is a carpenter and was in the employ of Pierce. The plaintiff claims that he was assisting another employee to move a pile of boards on the second floor of a building in process of construction by the defendant. Moan says that the other man gave the board they were carrying a push that caused him to fall through an opening in the floor to the first floor, a distance of twelve feet. Moan claims he was permanently injured, and that his employer is responsible, and is so advised by Attorney Crafts.

As the provisions of the war tax are to become operative within a few days and under the requirements of the out certain commodities and business transactions must pay tax to the government in the shape of revenue stamps, has caused more or less confusion among Westerly business men as to where the stamps are to be procured. Some were of opinion that the stamps would be on sale at the post office, and inquiry was made of Postmaster Butler as to when the stamps would be placed on sale. The presence of Deputy Collector Dunn at the post office gave an impression that he was in part to arrange for the sale of stamps, of the war tax series. The deputy was at the post office for the convenience of dealers in tobacco and liquor who are called upon to pay the tax levied on these articles.

War tax stamps in Rhode Island are procurable only at the internal revenue office in Providence, although local banks may have a stock for the accommodation of patrons. Just a few in Westerly are of opinion that the government should accommodate the general public by placing these stamps on sale at the post office the same as

MYSTIC

Children's Night at Parish Fair—Talk of Community Christmas Tree—Comers and Goers For Thanksgiving.

The Catholic parish fair which is being held in Columbus hall was largely attended Thanksgiving night, it being Children's night. Teacher Resigns.

Miss Julia Wilcox has resigned as teacher in the lower grades of the West Mystic school and is soon to be married to Judge Herbert W. Rathbun. Miss Genevieve Rathbun is to succeed Miss Wilcox.

Union Service.

There was a large attendance at the Union Thanksgiving service in the Union Baptist church at 10.30 a. m. Rev. M. Seeley preached. The choir furnished special music.

Talk of Community Christmas Tree.

The project of having a municipal Christmas tree in Mystic is being discussed and many are heartily in favor of the project. The plan talked of is to have a big Christmas tree put up on Bank square or perhaps in the Babcock lot on East Main street and have it lighted with electric bulbs. A programme of chorus singing is suggested in connection with the display in which children from all the schools and Sunday schools, as well as a large adult choir might participate. The matter was thought of last year and received some consideration.

Critically Ill.

Walter Blackler of Boston was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Fred Eldredge, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Kutner on Thanksgiving. Mrs. Eldredge is critically ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adamson are spending the week with Mrs. Adamson's parents in New London.

Miss Eletha Callahan is spending a few days with her parents in Car-arrangements were made to collect the revenue tax from dealers in tobacco and liquors, without the inconvenience or added expense, time and car fare.

The forty chairs in the town council chamber in the town hall are none too many to accommodate those who will attend the public hearing tonight when consideration is given the applications for liquor licenses for the next two years. There are twice as many applicants as there are licenses permitted under the law, provided the councilmen desire to issue the full number based on one for each 500 of population. The advocates of no-liquor having lost their cause are now favoring a more equal distribution of saloons throughout the town rather than bunching the majority of them practically in one section, in the hope that this might tend to bring the saloon in to more prominence and perhaps strengthen the no-liquor movement when next the license question is before the electors for action.

Unless new evidence appears this evening, it is probable that those who are to receive licenses have already been selected, and all that is lacking is the legal form of hearing and delivery.

Local Laconics.

Merton L. Stolt is critically ill with pneumonia.

There will be a session of the Third District court in Westerly today.

The merchants of Westerly report an unusually dull Thanksgiving business.

The social of the Twilight club in the Hibernian hall was liberally patronized Thursday night.

There was a general home-coming at Thanksgiving and in consequence there were many family reunions.

The general suspension of business in Westerly on Thanksgiving day resulted in a Sunday-like effect.

The annual promenade of the Westerly High school, in High School hall, Thursday evening, was a social success.

Under the direction of Prosecuting Attorney McKenna the state police are still seeking for violators of the liquor law in the town of Stonington.

The applicants for liquor licenses have been busy of late buttonholing the members of the town council, but received no definite promises.

There was a large attendance at the Union Thanksgiving service in the Broad Street Christian church, for sermon was delivered by Rev. D. C. Stone, of Stonington.

Michael Carey of Pawcatuck, whose place was raided by state police last Saturday night, pleaded guilty to violation of the liquor law when arraigned in the town court of Stonington, Thursday. He was fined $10 and costs on three counts. Reputation for keeping for sale and actual sale. The other cases, including the workingman's club, are assigned for hearing next Monday.
